The new word that is introduced to the world of mobile development is smart caching, which makes content available as close as possible to its place of use by means of a device or browser cache. This approach saves time for you and your customers. So, if you do not want to show a link to a specific website, you can use the cache and display content from there, but without the need to download the whole website. You can choose to cache HTML, CSS, images, and JavaScript. We have saved 15.5 MB as a cache for you to test the application. Features: HTML caching CSS caching Image caching JS caching user selection

When a message is received in the application, it is displayed in the other device in the other device and also in the browser's cache. If you have enabled cache caching, this feature will work automatically. Important: You need to be connected to the internet and the device must have sufficient memory (RAM), you will have to write a new cache strategy. Please, take a look at "Origin Pages" for the client's face (Configure the page that is viewed as contacts) and "Origin Settings" for advanced features. Origin Contacts is a simple mobile application in which you can chat with your contacts and customize your own contact list. You can contact your contacts right from any screen in the application, even from the "Show Details" screen of the application. Procedure to use Origin Contacts: You need to unlock the application and log in to get started. Then you can select the "Add contact" button, which opens a new screen where you can type your text messages. This is the first screen of the application. The "Display details" button will take you to another screen in which you can see the contact and see the list of those who've contacted you. You can also see a preview of the messages you've sent to the other device. The "Add contact" button will also take you to a third screen, where you can create a new text message for the contact. A button will take you to "Origin settings" from where you can configure "Origin Pages". Origin Contacts will soon be completed with more options and features. Stay tuned...
