Revisioned and improved subtitling software for video and DVD It's hard to find subtitles that are completely correctly translated, so much so that you can never find the right transcript. This is the reason for subtitling software to be developed. Today's software is very complete and allows users to download subtitles from all video and DVD files, to re-upload them (saving them locally), to find the right file (based on the chosen language), and to re-edit them. All these functions are highly requested by users. A few years ago we developed Subtitle Creation Tool and now we present our Revended and improved version. We've made it 100% easier to create subtitles. When you download the software, you'll immediately see the many features available in Subtitles Translator and if you like our software, you'll be able to benefit from it even if you don't need the full version. We've also improved its user-friendliness, added a new user interface, added a dedicated section for users of Windows Vista and Windows 7, and so much more.
