But rarely will you see two prospects so closely matched as with Chris Archer of the Tampa Bay Rays and Sean Newcomb of the Atlanta Braves. That is, if you had the option. On Thursday, the Rays selected the 21-year-old Archer with the sixth overall pick. Hours later, the Braves selected Newcomb in the first round (No. 17 overall). Their selection represented a move few had expected going into the day. And while the chances of both players landing with the same team
